Queen City Corvette Club (QCCC) newsletter is published monthly by volunteers and members of QCCC. Subscription rates are free for members. Guests can receive up to three months of newsletter issues, and then are removed from mailing list if they haven't participated in any QCCC events. Cost for postage and production is paid for through membership dues. Membership list and financial data are not published for guest copies. For change of address and all other QCCC inquiries, write to: Queen City Corvette Club, PO Box 77153 Charlotte, NC 28271-7002. QCCC is a non-profit club (501-C7), which raises money for and participates with various local children's charities. Dues and donations are not tax deductible. We strive to promote exciting, safe & fun ways to enjoy our Corvettes. We hold business meetings on the second Saturday of each month. Our monthly business meeting usually incorporates a social time afterwards. Our socials are always fun and are focused around food & drink. We've had swimming parties, bar-b-ques, cookouts, day trips and weekend trips. We participate in mountain tours, holiday parades and several homecoming parades at local area high schools. We also participate with several sister Corvette clubs in car shows, drag racing, and autocrossing. After an initiation fee of $7.00, club dues are only $8.00 a month, per family, and are to be paid quarterly. These dues go to cover the costs of running the club, mailing newsletters, and subsidizing the costs of our meetings. Club officers serve as volunteers.

To become a member of the QUEEN CITY CORVETTE CLUB, you must own a Corvette and attend at least three (3) monthly business meetings and two (2) events within a six-month time period. Express your wishes for membership during a monthly business meeting, be voted in and begin paying dues.

The President's Message

Hello to all in QCCC and a very happy New Year! I hope your Christmas holiday was everything you wanted it to be and Santa was good to you and your family. QCCC enjoyed an outstanding 2007 and with the New Year almost upon us, 2008 will bring us another great year.

Recapping 2007, our year was filled with two major road trips, one to Florida and the other to Pawley's Island. In between was the club attending two major air shows, one to view the Blue Angels at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base and the other to see the Thunderbirds at Pope Air Force Base. Throw in day trips to the Hickory brewery, Lake Lure, and to the wine country of Shelton Vineyards, we all had plenty of opportunity to put a few extra miles on our cars.

For those that didn't want to do that quite that much windshield time, we enjoyed shorter trips to Oakboro for the cruise in, Concord and Matthews for ice cream, and Kannapolis for baseball. For the buff and shine enthusiasts there were two Auto Fair events and two car shows at Burns Chevrolet, with the May Burns car show setting an all time record for QCCC car attendance. Add in the car show held in conjunction with the Green Market at Reid's Fine Foods in downtown Charlotte, and we were all pretty busy polishing our Corvettes. And when we weren't waxing, we found time to enjoy the annual barbeque in June at Eddie and Jane Burt's house.

There were also plenty of parades through out the year, starting the parade season with the St. Patrick's Day parade in March and ending in December in Pageland. All told by count, the club had participation in a total of 10 major parades and even a homecoming event. For the garage mechanics in all of us, there were three Car Care day clinics, two hosted by Wally Crawford and one by Gary Katzman. I can't thank Wally and Gary enough, as they provided all in attendance with plenty of insight on how to not only properly perform normal routine maintenance like oil changes, but also had clinics on headlight replacements and how to flush automatic transmissions. There was even a Zaino polish day held at Chris Patton's residence. For the golfing enthusiasts, two outings were scheduled to ensure we didn't get stagnant just waxing our cars.

The generosity of club members was again at the forefront with tremendous support once again to the 145th Air Lift Wing Command and participation in a canned food drive for the Second Harvest Food Bank. By everyone in the club participating in car shows and contributing to other raffles, our club charity fund is in good shape and on par with last year's disbursements to local, needy organizations.

And in looking over the above recap of the year, I want to one more time thank outgoing Automotive Director Chris Patton for all of his help in putting together the club events for 2007. We had a terrific schedule and great support from the club members throughout the year, and we could not have achieved this without the help and dedication of Chris.

As new 2008 board members John Meadows, Kay Weisberg, and Mary Frawley join Boyd Kurt, Linda Meadows, Eddie Burt and myself, I also want to thank outgoing board members Jane Burt and Melissa Patton. We could not have achieved all the good times during 2007 without the help of Jane and Mel. In addition, with the help of Iris and Charlie Binder, E.O. Oakley, Paul Pelkey, and Bob Denney, information going out to club members is always presented in a professional manner that sets QCCC apart from all the other clubs in our region. Thank you all for your hard work on behalf of QCCC.

Our annual awards banquet is scheduled for January 26th, 2008 at the Speedway Club and as always, we will have plenty of food, fun, dancing, raffles, and recognition of members for their accomplishments during 2007. I look forward to sharing the friendship during this annual event.

Additional thoughts

On December 18th, 2007 we lost beloved past President Jerry Scienski after a courageous battle with cancer. Two days later, with tears in our eyes and heavy hearts, a caravan of 35 Corvettes, led the funeral procession down South Boulevard to Jerry's final resting spot. After the Marine color guard presented the United States flag to Gloria, the QCCC members in attendance gave Jerry one last tribute, by firing up their engines on command and revving them to the max in one final salute to Jerry. In this time of sorrow and deepest sympathy to Gloria and her sons, I could not help but see Jerry smiling down on everyone in QCCC. As Gloria said, Jerry was all about life. As we go into 2008 let's all celebrate in loving memory of Jerry and be thankful we are blessed to be able to share our lives with so many people that we love.

In the meantime, be safe and save the wave.

VP REPORT

Happy New Year to everyone. We at QCCC are looking forward to another exciting year. We will miss our friend Jerry Scienski but will remember him in many ways. He touched all of our lives. My most memorable times with Jerry were at car shows and Auto Fair. We usually got around to talking about how we both enjoyed having a cold beer or two while putting that extra coat of wax or polish on our Corvettes. What a way to spend a Saturday afternoon.

I have to brag a little and say Susan did a great job decorating for the QCCC Christmas Party at Pleasant Hill Presbyterian Church. We had over 93 people at the party - meeting and the food, gifts and fellowship were fantastic. Thanks to all of you that made it happen and helped. Susan told me she even has a new theme for next year. I can't wait!!!! Also, a big thank you to all of the drivers and passengers who helped with the Christmas Parades this year. You made them a success.

The January 12th, 2008 meeting will be held at Troutman Restaurant, 1388 Warren C. Coleman Blvd. South, Concord, NC 28027. A buffet dinner will be available for $10.00 per person. (Cash Only Please) Dinner will be served at 5:45 PM and the meeting will start at 6:30PM. Be sure to sign up via email so we have enough food. Troutman BBQ is at the corner of Hwy 49 and Hwy 601 bypass in Concord. Be sure to wear your favorite team colors to this meeting.

Be sure to attend the January 26th Banquet to find out who are the top point holders for 2007. Thanks to everyone for your support of Queen City Corvette Club.

Now for an update on the American Le Mans Series: Yes Corvette will be back in 2008. They will run two cars in the GT1 Class and several in the GT2 class. Remember Sebring is March 12-15 with the 12 hour race on the 15th. Go CORVETTE!!!!!!!!!!!!

Our Home away from Home
Look for it at Sebring

We will miss you Jerry

This month all Corvettes are Blue!!!!

Highlights From Christmas Party/Meeting

My Christmas Dentist

I know you have heard of Christmas Scrooge, Christmas Elf's and Christmas everything. Now let me tell you about my Christmas Dentist.

It was the day before Christmas and all through my shop I was working so hard to clean and mop. When to my surprise my phone rang with a numbing blast I knew in a flash it was my dentist at last. OK, OK enough. As I answered the phone, knowing who it was I was sure he had made another purchase (over the last 3 weeks he has purchased a 1965 327/365 red on white roadster AND a 1967 427 Big Block roadster both in pristine condition). He asked if I was going to be around a while which is the canned statement for, I am coming over to show you something. I knew he had sent his 2007 Z06 to California to have it super charged, so it could be that or maybe another mid-year...(he does have his eye on a 64 fuelie). Well, I guessed right, it was his 07 Z06 yellow chrome wheels back from California with a 650hp super charged engine and I have to admit a beautiful car (or should I say rocket). You are going to have to understand this guy loves speed and he is not afraid to get all he can out of his cars. I told Lois that if I didn't make it back that I loved her, and slipped into the passenger seat, when he looked over and asked, "Are you buckled up?" I knew I was in for the ride of my life and sure enough I was...

If you can remember when you were younger, the first time you rode on a roller coaster, the thrill that you experienced with that first real drop, when your heart was on top of your head...that is how I felt when he got into that throttle, it was absolutely incredible.

The power that car has is hard to describe and I will never be the same, so I thought....

After a few laps around my area we headed home, my heart racing, palms sweating and knees weak. I think he knew I was blown away when he dropped the bomb. Well, ready to drive it? I will have to be honest with you I was not expecting that and he really caught me off guard (and what kind of stupid answer did I give him?) "no, I guess I had better not"WHAT DID I SAY????? Man, I have done some stupid things in my life but this has to take the cake.

We pulled back in my driveway and he turned the car around and shut off the motor. I am still almost paralyzed when he turned around and said: Ken, this is probably the only SuperCharged Z06 on the East Coast and I am not going to let you pass up the opportunity to drive it. Well, the butterflies in my stomach were jumping for joy, and I quickly agreed.

When I slipped in the Driver's Seat, I was off into a fantasy land. The car felt so good, controls, shifter everything exactly where it should be. With a few last minute instructions we were off. With the power the motor has, you have to be very careful when you really get into the throttle, so I gently (sure) got up to about 3500rpm's in third gear and I am going to be honest with you the car almost broke loose when I slammed the accelerator and I have never felt such a surge of power in my life...I can't imagine trying to hold the car in 2nd (If you ever had any notions of being an astronaut buy a Z06 and save yourself a lot of money and time). I was upwards of 140 mph in a matter of seconds and the thrill of the power and handling of this car was the most fun I have had since Lois let me buy our first Vette. When we arrived back home, my jaws were even sore from smiling so much, all I can say is WOW...what a feeling, this car is awesome and so much fun to drive. Even writing this page has my heart racing and wanting a Z06.

This has to go down in history of the best dentist visit ever and I will always be thankful for not only my dentist, but all my good friends in the QCCC, who have given Lois and me so many great memories. We wish all a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year....

Meet the New Members

Chris Wood & Peggy Marlowe

1969 Red Convertible

Ok track fans,
here's the one for you.

The new ZR1 will have a supercharged LS9 producing at least 620 horsepower and 600 lb.-ft of torque! The engine will be mated to a new 6 speed trans by a dual disc clutch, with higher capacity drive train to deliver the power to the Michelin Sport P335/25ZR20's in the rear mounted on 20 spoke wheels. The new suspension provides more than 1g cornering grip to keep those tires glued to the track.

To slow the car down, GM is supplying carbon-ceramic brake rotors that should never show any corrosion or require replacement for the life of the vehicle (when used in normal driving of course). Squeezing those rotors are six-piston front calipers and four-piston rear calipers, each painted a ZR1-exclusive blue. The front pads are double that of the Corvette

Z06's 70-sq.-cm. front pads!

The ZR1 Will sport a carbon fiber hood with a clear "window" to view the intercooler below it. A new gauge cluster will sport a speedometer with a 220 mph readout!

The ZR1's interior will be supplied with high-quality materials, craftsmanship and functionality that support the premium-quality experience promised by the car's performance. The ZR1's cabin is adorned with

- * ZR1-logo sill plates
- * ZR1-logo headrest embroidery
- * Specific gauge cluster with "ZR1" logo on the tachometer and a 220-mph (370 km/h) readout on the speedometer

The exterior will display widened, carbon-fiber front fenders with specific, dual lower vents, and a full-width, body-color rear spoiler incorporating the center high-mounted stop lamp, all unique to the ZR1. All of the exterior features of the car were developed to enhance high-speed stability and driver control.

The ZR1 is built on the same aluminum-intensive chassis as the Corvette Z06 and features similar independent SLA front and rear suspensions, with aluminum upper and lower control arms. Where the ZR1 differs is the suspension tuning, which was optimized for the car's steamroller-wide front and rear tires.

NCM Corner

I hope everyone had a very Merry Christmas and you and your Corvette got the gifts you wanted and needed. May the New Year bring happiness, health and prosperity to all.

The group of road warriors signing up for the C5/C6 Bash at the NCM in April is growing. The caravan will be departing on Wednesday, the 23rd and returning on Sunday, the 26th. When you register on-line, select which tours you want on Thursday and look at both dinners on Friday and Saturday evening. Any questions? Just give me a call at 704-992-2726.

If you want to keep up with all the Museum news as it happens, go to www.corvettemuseum.com/ncmnews/index.shtml and register for the weekly on-line Museum e-news bulletin. The sign-up is free and you can unsubscribe at any time. You will receive all the latest event news and Corvette Store sales items. Give it a try.

The number of members renewing their NCM memberships and those joining for the first time is most rewarding. A sure way to become an instant convert is to just visit the museum one time. There are several ways to plan a visit; attend one of the several yearly events, plan a club visit, or just wander over by yourself and do things at your leisure. You won't regret it, no matter which way you do it. And if you have visited the NCM and are not now a member, for shame!

The NCM High Performance Driving Event (HPDE) will be held at Virginia International Raceway (VIR) on June 30-July 1, 2008. Registration will open in January so be alert. Last year's event sold out in two hours. Be sure and sign-up for the e-news so you'll be the first to know.

Save the wave.

Wade Stickels sent in the following article for all of us to reflect upon

THE STATION

By Robert J. Hastings

Tucked away in our subconscious minds is an idyllic vision. We see ourselves on a long, long trip that almost spans the continent. We're traveling by passenger train, and out the windows we drink in the passing scene of cars on nearby highways, of children waving at a crossing, of cattle grazing on a distant hillside, of smoke pouring from a power plant, of row upon row of corn and wheat, of flatlands and valleys, of mountains and rolling hillsides, of city skylines and village halls, of biting winter and blazing summer and cavorting spring and docile fall.

But uppermost in our minds is the final destination. On a certain day at a certain hour we will pull into the station. There will be bands playing and flags waving. And once we get there so many wonderful dreams will come true. So many wishes will be fulfilled and so many pieces of our lives finally will be neatly fitted together like a completed jigsaw puzzle. How restlessly we pace the aisles, damning the minutes for loitering... waiting, waiting, waiting for the station.

However, sooner or later we must realize there is no station, no one place to arrive at once and for all. The true joy of life is the trip. The station is only a dream. It constantly outdistances us.

"When we reach the station, that will be it! ", we cry. Translated it means, "When I'm 18 that will be it!" When I buy a new 450 SL Mercedes Benz, that will be it! When I put the last kid through college, that will be it! When I have paid off the mortgage, that will be it! When I win a promotion, that will be it! When I reach the age of retirement, that will be it! I shall live happily ever after!"

Unfortunately, once we get "it", then "it" disappears. The station somehow hides itself at the end of an endless track.

"Relish the moment" is a good motto, especially when coupled with Psalm 118:24: "This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it." It isn't the burdens of today that drive men mad. Rather, it is regret over yesterday or fear of tomorrow. Regret and fear are twin thieves who would rob us of today.

So stop pacing the aisles and counting the miles. Instead, climb more mountains, eat more ice cream, go barefoot oftener, swim more rivers, watch more sunsets, laugh more and cry less. Life must be lived as we go along. The station will come soon enough.
